If you want to travel on your own

From and to Arlanda airport: Airport bus Flyg-bussarna to Brommaplan (where the hotel is) for SEK 119, it takes 55 min. Commuter train (SL) from Arlanda C (under SkyCity) to Stockholm City station in 40 minutes. Train passengers who get on and off at Arlanda Central station pay an access fee of 120 SEK with SL ticket and SEK 151 including the SL ticket. There is a high speed train from Arlanda airport called Arlanda Express (not SL), which costs 280 SEK.

Public transport company SL: Read about tickets. Buy a card for all buses, local trains and some boats for 72-hours (3 days) for 250 SEK or 24 hours for SEK 125. The card called Access you can buy at the Arlanda Central Station in SkyCity or in SL selling points (SL center) or local stores outside most metro stations.

Practical tips: When you enter a bus or metro you place your travel card on the readers at the bus or the automatic barriers in the underground and at the commuter train stations. Most stations have staff assisting with any ticket problems. Read about accessibility or call 020-120 20 22. There are several good travel apps for smartphones, such as "Res i Sthlm" or "SL" where you also can buy tickets with card or Swish. You can not buy tickets on the buses or trains. Failure to show a valid ticket can render a penalty fare of SEK 1.500.
